The Lakeland Community Heritage Project Presents

Lakeland Heritage Weekend 2009

Always Meetn' n' Eatn' in Lakeland

Saturday, September 19 and Sunday, September 20

Saturday, September 19th

College Park Community Center, 5051 Pierce Avenue, College Park, MD 20740

9:00 Heritage Weekend begins with day-long exhibits and Book and Calendar Sales.

10:00 Discussion: Always Meetin' 'n Eatin'

Bob Catlin, Moderator, will invite attendees to join a discussion about the role that foods play at different types of community and family gatherings such as holidays, athletic events, picnics, funerals, etc. Stories and types of special foods will help us identify meanings attributed to these occasions. Slides depicting feasts and foods at Lakeland events will be shown as background to the discussion. (This event will be digitally recorded.)

Noon Lunch is on your own

1:00 – 4:00 Creating Family Trees

Violetta Sharps-Jones will present approaches to collecting and organizing family genealogies. Helpers will assist with problems or concerns; discussions are encouraged. Due to limited space, people are asked to register early by emailing the number of attendees in your party and their names to violettajb@aol.com or call (301) 464-5113.

6:00 Pot Luck Dinner

Psyche Williams-Forson, PhD, a nationally recognized Food Ways specialist, will provide a short talk on the cultural history and meaning of foods. Following her talk, Motown era classics will provide background music as we enjoy our potluck dinner. Everyone is welcome. A special acknowledgement will be given to the first 50 who reserve early. Please call (301) 345-3692 or email the names, numbers of people in your party, and type(s) of dishes you will bring (enough to feed 6 people please) to fstyler@verizon.net. Also, please email or bring with you the recipe of your dish and related story. All recipes will be collected into a book to help tell this part of Lakeland's story.

Sunday, September 20th

First Baptist and Embry AME Churches, 5000 block of Lakeland Road, College Park, MD 20740

11:00 Joint Church Services, Community Churches

1:00 Antique Car Parade followed by Lunch

Afternoon Exhibits, Collections for Archives, Book and Calendar Sales
Face Painting, Balloon Man, Music, Free Ices, and More
